

Interventionists

RISE Southeast Raleigh Charter School

Organization Description

RISE Southeast Raleigh Charter School (RISE) empowers its scholars to thrive academically, strengthen their community, and discover their voice. We teach rigorous content, educate with compassion, foster leadership, and encourage exploration.

Opportunity Summary

RISE seeks an Interventionist who will plan, implement, and evaluate a comprehensive intervention curriculum to support reading and math. The Interventionist should also be prepared to provide leadership and coordination within the student support team operating within the MTSS framework. The Interventionist should be prepared to consistently collaborate and communicate with colleagues to support all learners in the intervention group.

How You'll Contribute

- Embody, advocate and operationalize the mission and vision of RISE.
- Proactively build great relationships with scholars, parents, and staff.
- Communicate regularly with scholars and parents about student progress.
- Lead your classroom with high expectations for growth and learning.
- Implement a research-based curriculum to meet or exceed academic standards.
- Assume responsibility for the academic progress of scholars with a high sense of urgency and ownership towards data driven results.
- Plan, deliver, progress monitor, and evaluate effectiveness of Tier 2 and Tier 3 interventions.
- Maintain strong, professional relationships with colleagues in an environment where listening, critical thought, respectful debate, and compromise is welcomed and essential.
- Own your professional growth by participating eagerly in whole-staff professional development and working to master the expectations of our team.
- Meet regularly with the EC Coordinator to grow professionally. Be hungry for feedback that will empower your learning and leadership.
- Complete all lesson plans, progress reports, report cards, and administrative functions on time and in response to your supervisor's recommendations.
- Teach daily instructional lessons with high behavioral and academic expectations to students within caseload
- Work closely with RISE teachers to differentiate curriculum, help create effective accommodations, and modify curriculum when appropriate
